

Study Notes and Questions for Ruth Chapter 3

- Why was it appropriate for Ruth to listen to the advice of Naomi?
- Why is practical advice usually a good thing?
- Explain why Naomi's advice does not contradict the idea of trusting the Lord.
- In what ways did Ruth have to continue trusting God even while following Naomi's advice?
- What piece of advice from Naomi do you think is the most practical still for today?
- Why was Boaz a man worth catching?
- What was Ruth inviting Boaz to do when she said, "Spread your wings over your servant,"?
- What did Ruth expose about her intentions when she said to Boaz, "For you are a redeemer."
- What did Boaz reveal to Ruth about her character in verse 11?
- What was Boaz saying when he told Ruth, "...there is a redeemer nearer than I."?
- How did Boaz protect Ruth while also providing for her in this chapter?
- How do you think Ruth felt knowing that she would be married but she didn't yet know for sure who would be her husband?